- Total Sales recorded: $698,812.33
- Total Footfall: 149,116 customers
- Average Bill per Person: 4.69
- Average Orders per Person: 1.4

The dashboard indicates stable customer engagement and consistent revenue generation across different store locations and product categories. The business demonstrates strong operational performance with balanced customer spending patterns.

Sales Trend Analysis by Hour

- Peak order hours are between 8 AM to 10 AM
- Highest quantity ordered observed around 10 AM
- Sales volume starts declining gradually after 11 AM
- Evening hours after 7 PM show significantly lower customer activity

Insight:

Morning hours contribute the highest sales and customer traffic, indicating strong breakfast and early office-hour demand. This suggests an opportunity to introduce premium breakfast combos or promotional offers during peak hours.

Category-Wise Sales Analysis

- Coffee category contributes the highest percentage of sales at approximately 39%
- Tea contributes around 28% of total sales
- Bakery products contribute nearly 12%
- Drinking Chocolate contributes approximately 10%
- Other categories such as Coffee Beans, Flavours, and Packaged Chocolate contribute smaller shares

Insight:

Coffee and Tea together dominate overall revenue contribution, showing that beverage products are the primary revenue drivers. Additional focus on upselling beverages with snacks could further improve average order value.

Order Size Distribution Analysis

- Regular size orders account for approximately 31%
- Large size orders contribute around 30%
- Undefined size category contributes approximately 30%
- Small size orders account for nearly 9%

Insight:

Customers prefer Regular and Large-sized beverages, indicating higher demand for standard and premium quantity servings. Small-size products have comparatively lower demand and may require promotional pricing strategies.

Store Location Performance Analysis

Hell's Kitchen

- Highest sales revenue among all locations
- Strong customer footfall performance

Astoria

- Competitive sales performance with high customer engagement

Lower Manhattan

- Slightly lower revenue compared to other locations but still maintains stable footfall

Insight:

Hell's Kitchen is the top-performing store location and may serve as a benchmark for operational practices and product demand patterns. Lower Manhattan may benefit from targeted promotional campaigns to increase customer conversions.

Top Product Performance Analysis

Top Revenue-Generating Products

1. Barista Espresso – Highest sales contribution
2. Brewed Chai Tea
3. Hot Chocolate
4. Gourmet Brewed Coffee
5. Brewed Black Tea

Insight:

Premium coffee beverages and specialty tea products are driving significant revenue. Expanding these categories through combo offers and seasonal variations may further improve sales.

Weekday Order Analysis

- Friday records the highest number of orders
- Thursday and Monday also show strong customer activity
- Saturday has the lowest order volume among all weekdays

Insight:

Weekday demand is stronger compared to weekends, likely due to office-going customers and daily commuters. Businesses can focus on weekday promotional strategies and improve weekend engagement through discounts or loyalty offers.

Customer Behavior Insights

- Customers frequently purchase beverages during morning hours
- Majority of purchases are concentrated around Coffee and Tea categories
- Average orders per customer indicate repeat product purchases within single transactions

Insight:

Customer purchasing behavior suggests strong repeat demand and product dependency on beverages. Cross-selling bakery products with beverages can improve basket size and customer spending.

Business Recommendations

- Introduce breakfast combo offers during peak morning hours
- Focus marketing campaigns on high-performing beverage categories
- Improve weekend sales through discount campaigns and loyalty rewards
- Increase promotion of low-performing product categories
- Expand premium beverage options based on customer demand trends
- Optimize staffing during peak morning hours to improve service efficiency
